IMPACT WEAVE

The impact of our "Textured" Yearbook illustrates the impact this school year has had in preparing us for the future. Note the intricacy of the weave. Interwoven into our lives are the invaluable learning experiences of our school days--learning experiences that have involved innumerable persons, places, and things. The impact of these experiences will be felt for all the years to come.

DEDICATION

MRS. SUMPTON

We of the yearbook staff dedicate in all humbleness the "1966-Wapiti" to a dedicated teacher and wonderful lady--Mrs. N. B. Sumpton.

For twenty-seven years Mrs. Sumpton has devoted her time and life to the students of Elk Point. She exemplifies to the students and faculty of our school all the attributes of a successful teacher that one can achieve . . . a ready wit and warm smile; an unquenchable, contagious enthusiasm for work and knowledge; and a co-operative approach to all academic and extra-curricular programs of the school.

In her classes whether they were English, math or music, she has instilled in her students through the years a mastery of subject matter, integrity, devotion and a love of life.

To one of the greatest teachers we have ever known--much happiness and success in the future years. May God bestow upon you all that is good in life.

We will miss your warm smile and thirst for knowledge around the halls of F. G. Miller High School. With our deepest appreciation and affection--"Aloha."

The students and faculty of the F. G. Miller High School

STAFF

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

First, allow me to commend the work of the editor and staff responsible for the compilation of this excellent yearbook, which in the years to come will no doubt be regarded as a cherished possession and nostalgic memento of youthful experiences at the F. G. Miller High School.

May I call to your attention the thought contained in the following quotation as it may be applied to the attainment of your goal in the field of education:

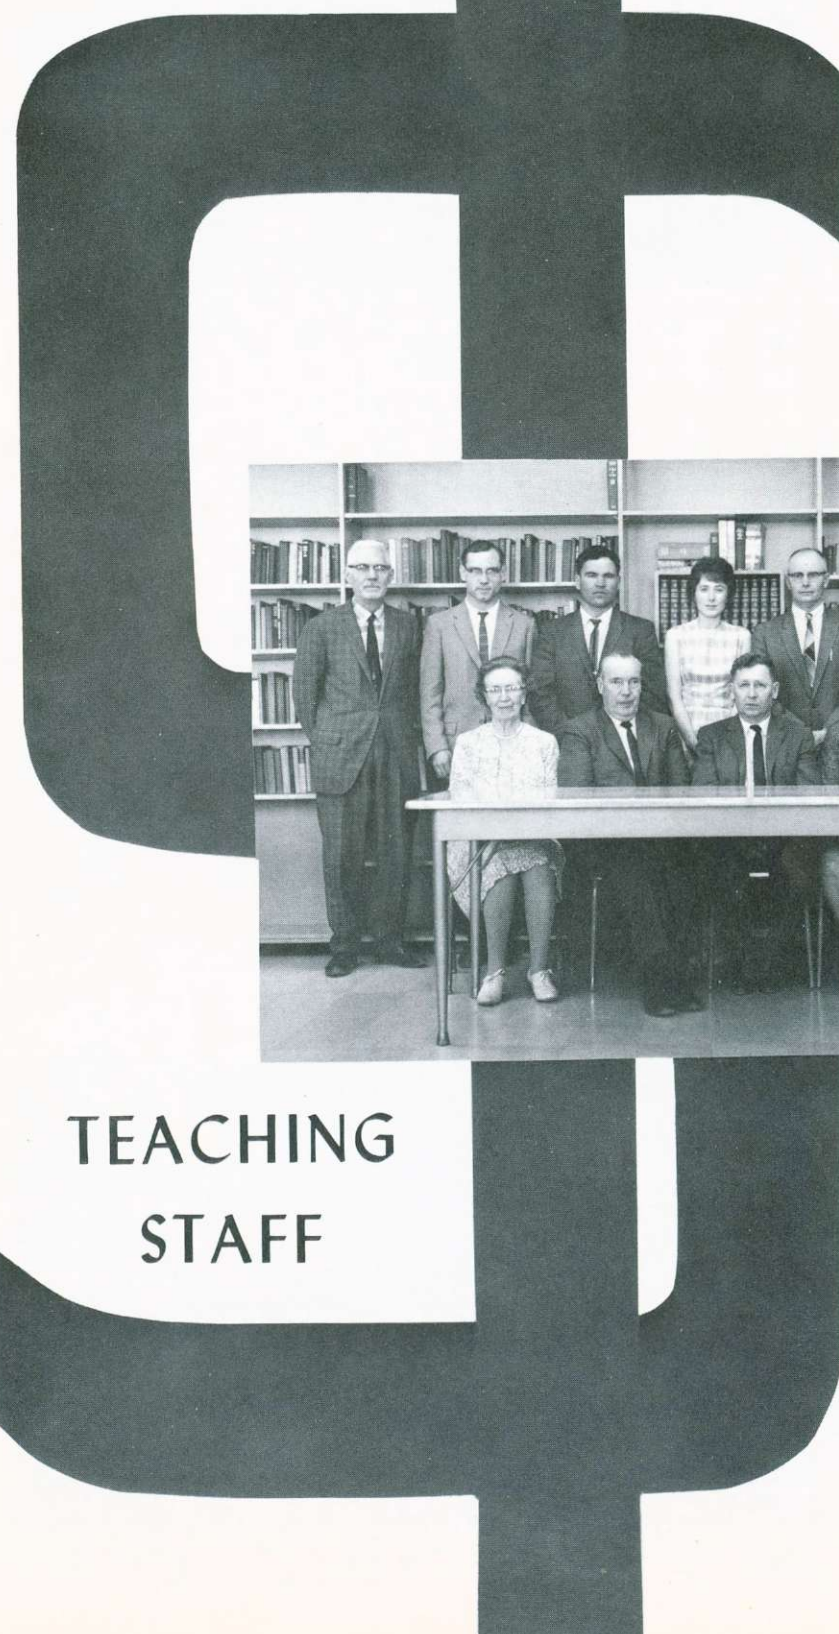

"All the performances of human art at which we look with praise or wonder are instances of the restless force of perserverence. It is by this that the quarry becomes a pyramid and that distant countries are united by canals. If a man was to compare the effect of a single stroke of a pickaxe or of one impression of a spade, with the general design and last result, he would be overwhelmed with the sense of their dispropation. Yet these petty operations, incessantly continued in time surmount the greatest difficulties and mountains are levelled and oceans bounded by the slender force of human beings."

---Samuel Johnson

To the graduates I would extend, on behalf of the teaching staff, best wishes for success and happiness in their future endeavours.

Let a smile be your umbrella.

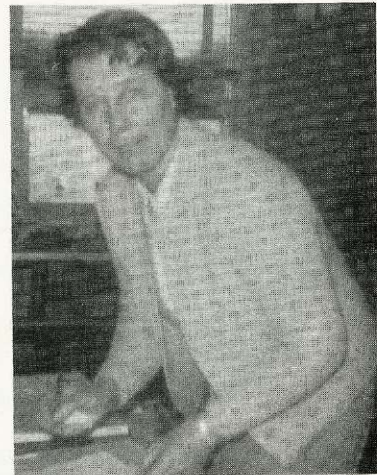

"My Fair Lady!"

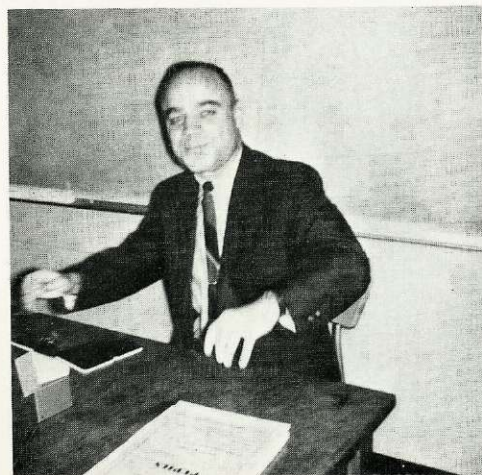

I said to myself, "SELF"

They did it again. WON, that is!

He had to be a meat-eater . . . .

Hang on to your seatbelts, it's going to be a bumpy landing!

I'm on the outside looking in.

Five students from F.G. Miller High School, Phyllis Gulayec, Judy Pinder, missing; Maureen Warren, Donald Conrad and David Pilisko, were chosen to be Centennial Travellers for the year 1965.

These students entrained at St. Paul in July with other Centennial Travellers from the St. Paul Inspectorate and travelled to Ottawa, the first of such groups from Western Canada. At the station, they were greeted by Centennial Commissioner, John Fisher, before leaving for the homes of other Centennial Travellers in Ottawa and Hull. There they spent a glorious week sight seeing in Ottawa and Montreal, and visiting with their new friends.

On their return from the East, they in turn entertained Centennial Travellers from Kirkland Lake, Ontario.

This summer was one that these students will never forget.
