Crusaders 2005-06

Ready for the new

Starting the new school term always brings a mix of emotions - joy, apprehension, anticipation, excitement, disappointment, and contentment. Getting back together with old friends or giving up freedom and independence are two sides of the same coin, and two views of returning to school in September.

Crusaders were greeted at the back-to-school assembly by Amanda Poulin, our Students' Union president, and by Mr. Barry Martini, who started the year as our new principal.

Mmmmm FOOD...
Friendly faces from our own students' union and from the local CoOp prepared a pancake breakfast for all to enjoy. Right: Alyx Aarbo, Melissa Frisby, and Mrs. Frisby. Below: Mark Gormley and Dwayne Odgaard

Above: Anywhere there's food, you'll find Yonas Rohner and Taylor Legault!

Happy to be of service:
Cooking up smiles are Laryssa Cochrane, Darby Brooker, and Sage Lowry.

Left: Mr. Boratynec presides over the grade seven initiates, familiarizing them with some of the school protocol.

...and on this stove, we have Brittany Ballas, accompanied by the lovely ladies: Jessica Lee and Cassy Cochrane.

MOVING ON... Support from parents, guidance from teachers, and determination from within pushed the class of 2005 to this moment

GRADUATION

Amy Olstad, Mrs. Cheri Lindquist, and Mr Jim Hawkins gave toasts or replies at the banquet.

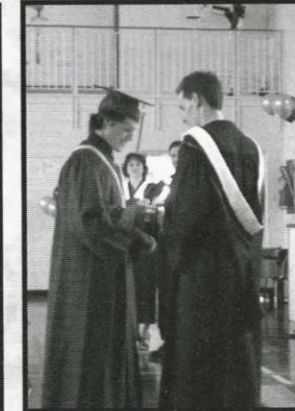

Special guests, Liz and Homer Poitras congratulated the graduates. With their daughter, Tracy, and grandson, Corbin, they said good bye to three generations of association with FGM.

Students' union representatives Amanda Poulin and Darby Brooker presented gifts to each of the grads, including Valerie Freisen and Travis Lindquist.

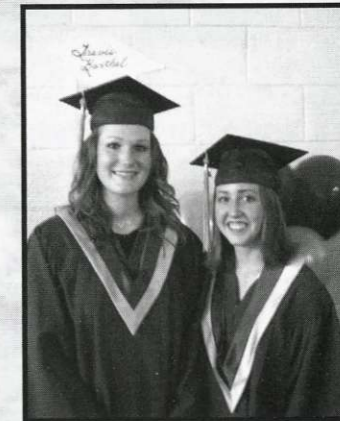

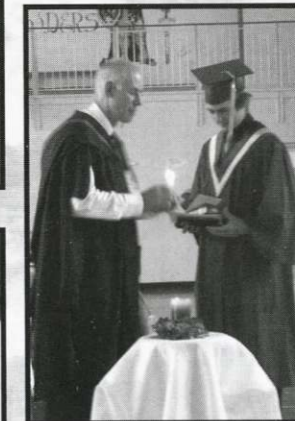

Our principal at the time of the ceremony, Mr Barry Martini, served as guest speaker. Mr. Murray Boratynec replied to the toast to teachers. Student entertainers, such as Erin Lindquist, provided background music.

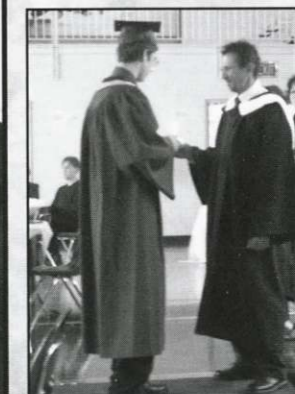

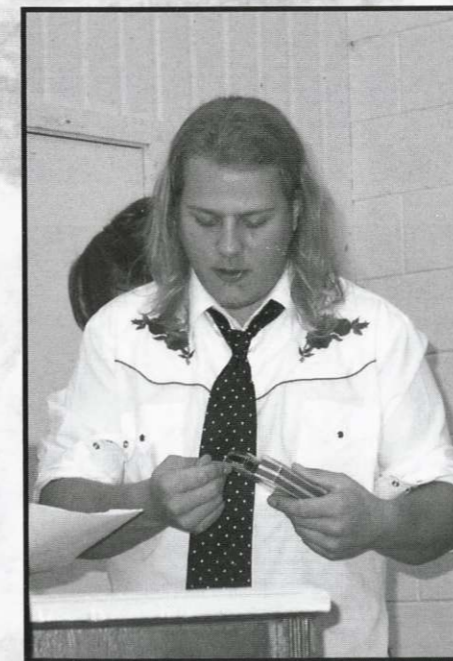

Class valedictorian, Jan Kozicky, spoke of excitement and anxiety at leaving school and venturing forth. Travis Lindquist shared a special moment with his mom, Mrs. Cheri Lindquist, when she lit his candle.

"Each of us must find out what we want in life and go for it!"
— JAN KOZICKY

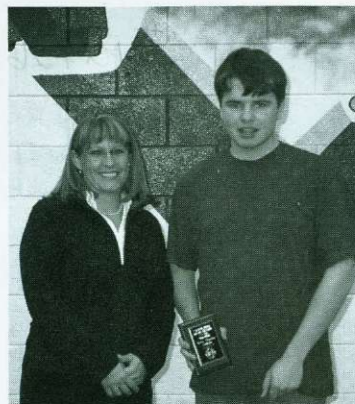

Graduation is a special time for families. Travis Barthel and Rachel Cardinal posed in celebration with their families.

Of course, the celebrities at the event were the graduates, seen here with classmates, principal, friends, and teachers.

Halloween

1. Mrs. Bishop's Grade 8 class gives a presentation on healthy eating to elementary school students.
2. Students gather on the stairs to show off their pjs on Pajama Day.
3. The Grade 9s have a mock trial regarding an assault at a hockey game.
4. Josh Gadowski defends himself to the jury while Shalene Bezpalko watches.

Mrs. Bishop presides over the mock court cases.

You never find yourself until you find the truth.

HAMLET

Circle top right: Cody Ironeagle, Chevy Botting and Alex Buck work as sound masters, ensuring the lighting and sound effects enhance the play.
Circle above: Guards Nicole Kalynchuk and Billy Hudry mourn as Hamlet is mortally wounded.
Top left: F.G. Miller students proudly participated in this year's production of Hamlet.

REMEMBERING OUR PAST

As part of the Crusader tradition, this year's Remembrance Day ceremonies were conducted by Madame Pentek's English 20-1 class. Students recited poetry and statistics, sang and played music, and put together a striking PowerPoint presentation. To get an understanding of how life was in war times, students interviewed family members and shared their stories with the school.

Natasha Scott shared with the audience a story of how her grandmother worked on airplanes back in World War II. Below left: Cassy Cochrane read a poem. Below right: Brett Younghans also read a stirring poem.

Clockwise from left: Sage Lowry and Emily Mosley played the songs "Let It Be" and "Knocking on Heaven's Door". April Bresky and Tellia Loughran played "Free Bird". Dan Blacklock, Emily Mosley, and Natasha Scott recited a poem. Brittany Ballas told of how her grandfather and his brother enlisted in the army.

Merry Christmas

Above: Amanda and Harley prepared brunch. Below: That's FGM alumni for you, only coming back for the food.

CULTURE - junior high students attend a presentation encouraging them to think about their own cultures and to develop understanding about other cultures. The inspirational talk leads James to "walk like an Egyptian."

1. Mr. Bjorkman congratulates Cody Ironeagle on his first place achievement in the Junior High Chess League.
2. Chess League winners are presented with prizes donated by the S.U. and Applied Hammer Construction.
3. John Munro is awarded 2nd place in the Junior High Chess League by Mr. Bjorkman.
4. First place in the Senior High Chess League goes to Adam Zapesocki.

Just doin' our things

Daniel

1. Jeremy's impressed by what was up Billy's sleeve, but John, Trina, Cathy, Karissa and Skye have their own treasures to share.

2. The more we get together the happier we'll be!

3. Okay boys, who can win the most hearts? This time, Mike, your good looks just might not be enough!

4. Lindon, Amber, Mrs. Bjorkman and Steven sort stamps for Crusaders International

It's the green hair gang - Lacy, Alyx, Mr. Aarts and Mr. Boratyne

The most remarkable thing about grade 11 is the pigs - yup, anyone who studies Biology gets to dissect pigs. Well, maybe Brett would prefer to study his biceps, but Sage, Natasha, Tyson and others, as well as April, Tellia, Lisa, Sara, and Sarah prefer to study pigs. Troy looks like he's ready to transport some little pigs - hope they are in better shape than the ones in the biology lab! After a hard day of studying pigs, Tyler, Tyson, Tyson and Dan like to sit on the bench and study sports.

basketball

Possession is 9/10ths of the law, especially in basketball. Cassy, Natasha, Amanda and Jessica defend Sam's possession.

Control... control is the secret.

Katelynn works hard to keep the ball under control as she is pursued by the opposition.

Mr. Aarts makes the call, and the girls resume their positions.

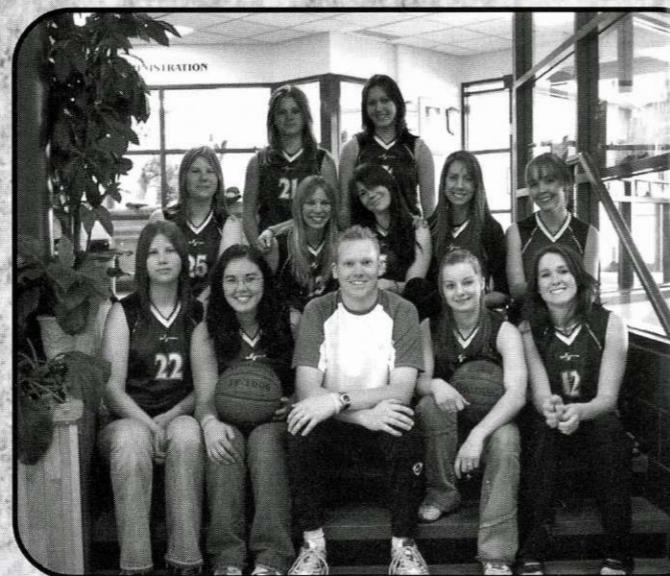

Mentally into the game, Taylor and Katelynn rush back up the court.

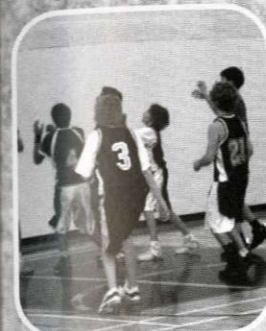

Cassy, Darby and Lisa vie for the ball.

Sam is ready to put the moves on the other team.

IT'S ALL ABOUT KNOWING WHAT TO DO... the junior high game, moving in on the ball should guarantee that someone gets it. In senior high, it looks like there is more strategy, but maybe it's just a game of rock, paper, scissors.

Troy realizes that there's nothing he can do when the other team has a free throw. Jayden and Eric look for the best positioning on the court.

Leading by Serving

Having fun and working for the betterment of the whole school, the students' union organized dances, events, and their grand finale, the above the limits draws.

Advised by Mrs Frisby and Mr Burke, 2006-07 students' union members, around the table are: Mrs. Frisby, Laryssa Cochrane, Erin Lindquist, Natalie Maas, Cassy Cochrane, Kaitlin Orr, Alyx Aarbo, Josh Gadowski, Brett Lindquist, Mr Burke, Melissa Frisby, Brittany Ballas, Sage Lowry, and Colin Trainor.
 missing: Sabrina Stewart

Students' union presented fun activities like Hallowe'en, two big screen video dances, and pajama day (as well as other dress-up days). The students' union promoted MADD, and other wellness presentations, and fund raised to help the yearbook and FGM sports teams.

Golf Team

Ryan MacDonald, Craig Dallaire, Mr Aarts, Tyler Loughran, and (not pictured) Brett Youngmans enjoyed the short golf season and a day off school for the final tournament.

Passion: Passion for Learning and Passion for Culture

From the class of 2005, Josh Boyko shared his sense of humour and his passion for music.

Alumni Leanne Wilson and John Braga shared their passion for higher education.

Yolanda Kinjerski and Andrea Lee (with Laryssa Cochrane & Justyne Wozniak) danced with passion.

Blake Desjarlais, accompanied by Walter Anderson (and Arnie Price), showed his passion for Metis music and dance.

Cody Ironeagle

Curiosity and a passion for learning motivated Cody to ask questions.

Mr Aarts & Mr Bjorkman

Teachers renewed their passion for education as they listened to their former students.

Madeline Ludlage

Future crusaders, Madeline and her sister, Hannah, put passion into each of their hip-hop moves.

track and field

EVERYONE GOES

The whole junior high went to St. Paul to compete for spots on the school track team. Wayne, Stephan, and Hillary entered the wettest hair competition.

THE BRIGHT SUNSHINE

IN TRAINING FOR THE STRONG- man event, Mike heaved a mighty shot.

GO LONG, ADRIAN, GO LONG

A great push, and he's off the ground! The secret is in where he lands.

WINNING TAKES CONCENTRATION

Sage found her zone before she faced her toughest critic - herself.

THE BIONIC MAN,

Tyler pumped toward the finish line, relying on his well trained muscles to find victory.

UP ..AND..SHE'S OVER! Competing in the senior girls' category, Jessica cleared the bar with ease and style.

Tyler ran, but this time it was for lunch!

Dylan showed us how easy high jump is in the junior boys' competition.

Pouring rain postponed the junior high track event, sending everybody home at noon. Anita, Lacey, Caitlin, Tori, Kate, and Cheryl seemed to enjoy the damp weather.

Back for a second try, Laryssa and Tyson wouldn't let the weather stop them this time.

AN END-A BEGINNING

Celebrating the end of 12 years of school, and the beginning of a lifetime.

Mr. Hawkins was welcomed back to FGM as guest speaker, reminding students that they always have parents, friends, and a good education as their support systems.

In her valedictorian speech, Lisa observed that all the colours in our lives blend into unique shades of grey, and that we should all learn to appreciate our own special shade of grey.

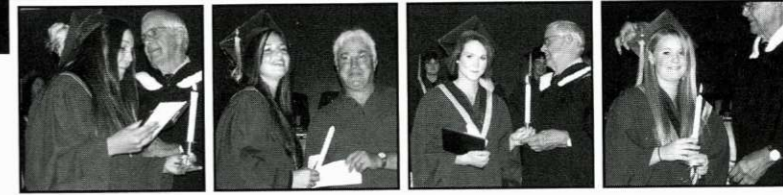

As co-valedictorian, Darby advised her classmates, "you have learned to practice; now practice what you've learned."

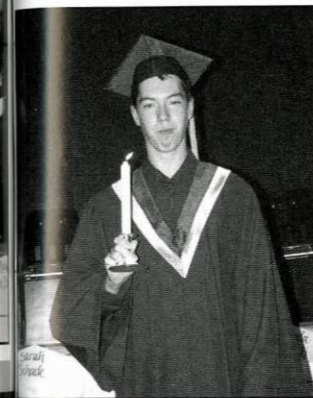

MLA Ray Danyluk reminded graduates to grow and learn from the challenges in life and to "dream big" as Alberta holds many opportunities.

F. G. Miller is remodelled and readied for a new year

One of the most noticeable remodellings that occurred this summer was the transformation of the library into Cafe Readalot. With the help of Mr. Ira Inscho and Ms. Lilly, the Cafe is open for the 06-07 school year, although it will be a constant project in need of fundraising.

During the 05-06 school year F.G. Miller received a brand new school sign. This sign is used to notify the community of upcoming events and student achievements.

During the summer months the gymnasium, which is usually full of active students, was transformed into a storage house for the many renovation projects on the go.

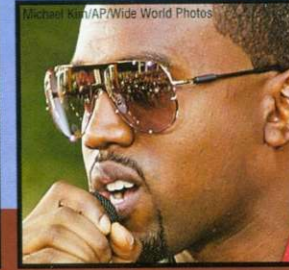

The roof of F. G. Miller received some well needed new shingles during the month of August. It is once again ready to protect hungry young minds.

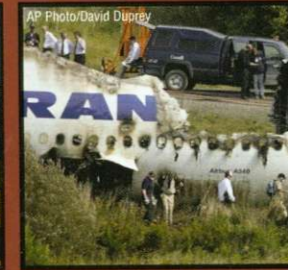

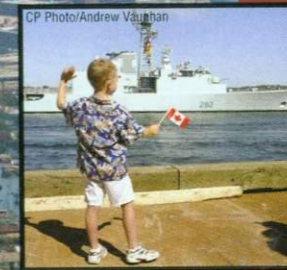

Individual showers replaced the old style cauldron shower in the gents change room; as well, the metal stalls of the ladies change room were replaced with fiberglass shower shells.

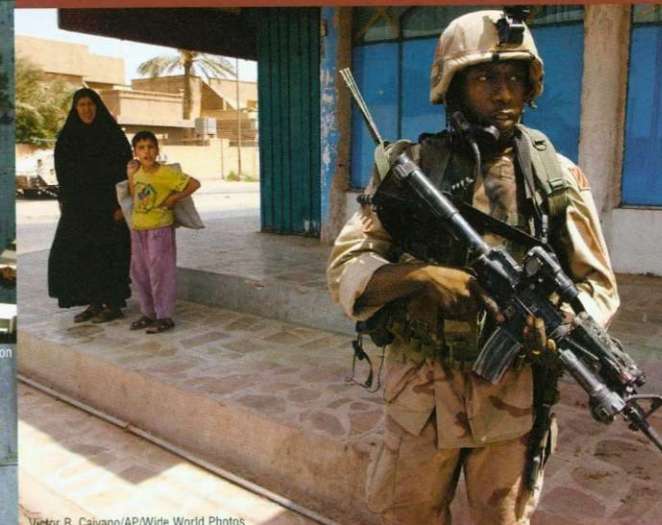

Cory Smereka aided in the reflooring of both the boys and girls change rooms. In addition to new floors, both change rooms have new shower and locker set-ups.

August

- 25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.
- 28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.
- 29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breached, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.
- 31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

- 1 30,000 U.S. National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon in the U.S., and $1.34 per litre in Canada.
- 2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.
- 4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.
- 6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.
- 9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.
- 12 Mike Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.
- 14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.
- 15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.
- 20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.
- 22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.
- 23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

October

- 24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.
